uniors Juniors Juniors Juniors Ju

After a fun-filled Homecoming week, a lot of hard work, and plenty of advice from Mr. Ricci, the Juniors came up with a float. Our theme was "We're Calling for a Victory." It won 4th place in the judging. Krista VanDe-Keere and Wade Gerbitz represented our class as attendants.

For money-making projects we sold jewelry in December and had a fish supper on March 30. These were very successful especially the fish supper with the secret batter recipe, right Mr.Ricci?

Junior-Senior Prom was held at Arnie's Ballroom in Deer Grove on April 27, 1984. The Band was Night Breeze, the theme was "Tonite I Celebrate My Love for You." Renee Fordham and Larry Hewitt were the Junior attendants.

As we saw another year pass by quickly, we began to realize that it would soon be our turn to be Seniors and that it had been a great and unforgettable year in the history of the "Class of 85!"

Homecoming highlighted the beginning of our Sophomore year. Our float won second place in the contest this year. Watch out next year!! Brian Sierens and Tracey Rasmussen were the Sophomore attendants. A successful turkey supper was held during the year which certainly helped our financial outlook. Probably the most memorable day, though, was when the class rings arrived! All the months of saving for that one ring were really worth the wait.

Freshmen Freshmen Freshmen

Our freshmen year began with . . . you guessed it, Initiation!! Everyone says that the Seniors took it easy on us. At first I didn't agree, but after hearing some of the horror stories of what the former freshmen went through, I began to agree with them. Even so it was pretty exciting!

Our Homecoming attendants were Monica Nodine and Chris Wirth. We were awarded third place on our float. Next year we hope to get first place. Our class sponsor was Mrs. Hahne. She helped us alot.

All in all, I think we all agree that our Freshmen year was exciting and a year we'll remember for the rest of our lives!

Winter Sports Banquet

Several awards were given at the basketball banquet on April 2 in the school cafeteria. Award winners from left to right are the following: Jeff Jacques won the Free Throw Award for the frosh-soph team; Mae Jaggers won the Free Throw Award for the girls' frosh-soph team; Jeff Wessel took home the frosh-soph Most Valuable Player Award; Catherine Christensen was the Most Valuable Player for the varsity team and also received the Free Throw Award for the varsity; Joe Hunt was the recipient of the Free Throw Award for the varsity; Darcy Olinger was Most Valuable Player for the frosh-soph team; Larry Hewitt was Most Valuable Player for the boys' varsity. In addition to these awards, three players were selected to the Indian Valley All-Conference Team. Dana Doty and Catherine Christensen made the first team with Dana being a unanimous selection. Renee Fordham was named Honorable Mention to the team. Larry Hewitt and Joe Hunt were named Honorable Mention to the Bureau Valley All-Conference Team. Joe was also Honorable Mention to the LaSalle-Illinois Valley Sports Weekly Paper — Class A All-Area Team. Dana Doty and Catherine Christensen were selected to be team members of the Sterling Gazette All-Area Cage Team and the Pizza Hut Hog Capital Hoopfest held in June.

Prophecy Prophecy Prophecy Prophecy

Dear Cat,

I have a full schedule, as always, and a very important meeting with the President in a half hour.

The main reason for me writing is concerning our tenth class reunion of the great Class of 1984! I thought we should probably try to organize this early to give everyone a chance to make plans.

Oh my goodness! You would not believe who I just saw out my window. It looks like John Daley. Just a minute, I'll check. I can't believe it — he was leading a picket line to de-amend the ERA. I guess that's typical though. You remember how he always did side with Ms. Brokaw when we debated the superior sex. After discussing politics a few minutes, John informed me of his new position as Chairman of the Chicago Board of Trade. Can you believe it?

Well, back to business now. How does May 25, 1994, sound? Since the high school is deserted, and it has been for some time now, I am sure there would be no problem meeting there.

Gotta go for now, my half hour is over. Keep in touch!

Love, Sandy

Hey, Loots!

It was really great hearing from you! So how does it feel being the first female Secretary of Agriculture? All of that extra time you spent staying up late nights really paid off, huh? I was beginning to think all of that success had made your MHS classmates unimportant and a forgotten few; but I should have known good old reliable, but usually late, Sandy, would come through for our tenth reunion. I'd be happy to help you get this thing organized, but I must ask why so soon? What happened to you? We always wait until the last minute to do things!

The old Manlius High School sounds like a great idea, although we could always hold it at the new consolidated Hen House High. No, I think I like your idea better. I can't make it on the 25th of May, however, because I'll be in Hawaii training for the Triathlon. How does June 20 sound?

At least Manlius Grade School is still operating. Speaking of the school, Bonnie graduated from Bradley University and returned to the Manlius area; and, as you may have guessed, she filled the kindergarten teaching position. Rumor has it she is costing the school a bundle, during the winter months especially! She has the warmest room in the whole school.

I've got a great idea for entertainment. It seems Mike and his brother Larry started up a band called the Rockin' Rowlands. They joined up with a couple of the Avenging Angels and have really made it big. I saw their hit, "We're Gonna Walk Around the Town Tonight," on the Top 10 last week.

I just gotta tell ya! Sugar Bear's sweet tooth for plan M & M's led her straight to the top. Tina no longer needs to spend $254.80 a year for her two bags a day — she now owns the whole company! What a Cracker Jack.

Well, that's all the info I have for now.

Love, Catherine

Dear Cat,

Thanks a lot for helping me organize this tenth reunion. You know, this is out of the ordinary for us to be planning so far ahead. June 20 is a bad date for me, but I will be in the Midwest talking with the small farmers the week of August 7-14.

August 7 I have a meeting with Dave Anderson in Milwaukee, Wisconsin, to discuss the agriculture future. After graduation from Plattville, he told me he started a huge dairy farm. It seems all the grocery stores around now carry "Dinka Dairy Products." I guess they have become as popular as "Land-o-Lakes" was, way back when we were growing up.

It sounds like you have the entertainment under control. All we need now are the refreshments. Speaking of "refreshments", have you joined the Fu Fan Club yet? I picked up a new dictionary the other day entitled THE DICTIONARY OF OFFICIAL FU WORDS. Rumor has it, it's been nominated for the Pulitzer Prize. I heard she was throwing a big PARTY in honor of this success of hers. Fu always did know how to have a good time.

It seems Dee should be able to come. Last time I talked to her, she was the new accountant for McCune Oil. Living in Texas does keep her busy. She informed me of her new friends she met in Gilley's. Randy and Teddy are now two of her closest friends. Let's hope she does bring her friends!

I heard from Darla the other day. She has found a rich Methodist down at WIU. Her dad already has her married to him since he is practically the only non-Catholic she's ever dated. I guess she lives in Allentown, Pennsylvania, where she is now in charge of all the patents and copywrites for the state.

Well, gotta go for now. I'll see you August 14.

Love, Sandy

Hello again, Flit,

August 14 sounds great. You and I can make it, but I'm not sure Lieutenant General Mike McVey will be able to. It seems when he was stationed in Africa, he mysteriously disappeared with a wild band of African head hunters. If he does show, let's hope he doesn't bring any friends.

I finally got a hold of Dana's phone number from her parents. When I called, her answering service came on with "Gumby isn't home now, Dambit! Call back late!" So I did, and this time Dot was home. She was hard at work creating a 22 foot statue of Gumby to be made entirely out of green apple bubble gum. She's been chewing for five years now and said it's almost complete.

Rodney Hewitt continued his basketball career as coach of an NBA team, the Houston "Rockets." He's quite the ladies man these days I've heard. A bachelor at 27, he just can't seem to settle down with one chick!

We're gonna have to make this reunion quite an affair if we expect Andrea Wise to show. She's used to those Beverly Hills' parties and a bash at the condemned MHS may ruin her image. We'll have to have all the proper lighting in case the news media shows up, too. You probably don't have time to spend a lot of time watching TV so you may not have seen Andrea on "Knot's Landing." Maybe you did catch her last movie "Flashloose" or was it "Footdance?" Whatever!!??!!

Well, I gotta run. The Triathlong is only two months away!

Love, Catherine

P.S. Fu is taking care of the beverages, but what about the food? Oh, that's no problem your Mom will make cupcakes for the occasion. After all, it is tradition!

Dear Cat,

It was nice hearing from you again.

I talked with Kim Peterson last night. Well, maybe "talked" isn't the appropriate terminology, since she is now a professional psycholgist. Anyway, she informed me she could devinitely zip down to our class reunion. She will, no doubt, drive one of her Z-28's, since she is the new owner of the company now.

Jim Jensen should be able to make it with no problem since he still resides in the Manlius area. I hope he hasn't forgotten all his classmates, however, because of all the success he has gained. Owning most of the land in Bureau County, Jim and Michelle now raise horses and ponies. The county is widely associated with the Jensen name, since Jim purchased it in 1990.

Tara, the small-farmer's daughter, really made it big for herself. She is now the head surgical nurse in General Hospital. I guess all that staying home and studying must have really paid off.

When you said you had to run, you really weren't kidding were you? I heard you were one of the favorites in the up and coming Triathlon. I think that is really great, but I do wonder how you're able to take such good care of yourself living on Three Mile Island. I meant to ask you before why you were living there. I just suppose all those Chemistry experiments have been forever imbedded in your head and you now want to continue experimenting. Oh well, just please don't expect me to come and visit!

Love, Sandy

P.S. I guess we should figure on 38 coming, since everyone will no doubt bring their spouses. You and I can always bring a friend.

Hey, Zoomer!

Did you go to church last Friday? I did. I'm now up to 129 First Fridays. I did scrape up a few more details concerning "The Reunion."

I found out that Professor Lowder could take a few days out of his work to join us. He's been working diligently on a machine for the vociference of sonata with innocuous Cadense, in other words, an amplifier for music with a good beat. It figures he'd become an inventor — it seems he always was good with his hands.

Kim DeBrock is really busy these days. Besides being a wife and a happy homemaker, she is President of the U.S.A., the United Seamsters Association. The union is made up of some of the best seamstresses who are fighting against unfair competition by COLECO. They are mass producing cheap imitations of some of their best dolls and many of their other fine hand-made items.

Give me a ring and we'll smooth out any wrinkles for the reunion.

Love, Catherine

P.S. I guess August 14 is out. I'll meet you at the Church . . . with the case.

Wills Wills Wills Wills Wi

I, DAVID ANDERSON, being of sound mind and unused body, will to Roger DeBrock, my ¼ of Milwaukee so that he may uphold the family tradition. I will to my "little buddy" Mike Jacobson a book of 101 Promises: Made But Never Kept. I am also leaving the following to whom it may concern: steel claws, corrective shoes, muleshoes, a tree trunk, a bag of Counter 15G, Rocket fuel, a truck, and a Twinkie cream filled cake. I would also like to will the best of luck to the Class of 1984!

I, DARLA BLACKERT, being of deprived body and corrupted mind will to Squatty my ability to "stuff" a basketball and also my ability to be sweet, charming, and loveable at every possible moment. To anyone planning to attend FFA National Convention, some advice, "Take two pairs of tennies because you never know when you might "go swimming!" To "Flit" Lootens, a shiny new 1984 quarter to play her favorite game with! And lastly, Fu's and my reflector collection to Mark Miller so he can find his front yard at night.

I, CATHERINE CHRISTENSEN, being of fried mind and deprived body, will to anyone who will take it, my ability to be "pure as the driven snow" all through high school (well, almost!) and to "Foam" Fordham, my ability to remove all unsightly hairs from my clothing before appearing in public.

I, JOHN DALEY, being of frazzled mind and weathered body, do hereby will the following gifts (?) to the following inhabitants of Manlius High School: to the heirs of Milwaukee an honorary key to the city of St. Louis, for all you do, St. Louis is for you; to Corey Miller, another key to the city with the arch so he won't have an excuse to skip out when Scott notifies him it's his turn to buy and, a date with a dream girl on who's very name he goes mad-along with a book on how to fight off savage women even if you are irresistable; to Darla, a heart for the other side of her sweater; to Ms. Brakaw, a book on growing cucumbers and other vegetables; to Mark Miller, a year's supply of passes to shop; to Wendy Rasmussen, a steak dinner at the Prime Quarter furnished by Tina McMahon; and finally, to my loyal and attractive girlfriend, an expense account so she can visit me next year as much as she wants!

I, KIMBERLY DeBROCK, will to Renee Fordham, Good Luck so that she doesn't carry on the Atherton Tradition. Remember, Renee, it takes a few months. Also, to Mr. Ricci, my time and ability to type. I'll send you my bill next year!

I, DANA DOTY, being of destroyed mind and body, do hereby leave all my gum in the form of chewable stomach pills to Renee Fordham and appoint her honorary "Gumby" of the Class of '85. Merry Christmas!?!?!? I leave to Steph Gripp, a bloodhound sensitive to aftershave to sniff out Mr.R.; and to Mark Miller, a shirttale named Digger.

I, MICHELLE "FU" FOY, being of affected mind and no body, hereby will back to my brother, Mike, his good looks, charm, and personality because I have enough of my own. To Mark Miller, the key to the city of St. Louis that is to be handed down to future generations because we all know that St. Louis beats Milwaukee hands down. I also leave to Mark a bunch of CERTAIN reflectors that had better not end up in my hard. Finally, I leave to the teaching staff The Complete Writings of Fu so you can remember just how different Fu made school life.

I, ROD HEWITT, being of sound mind and body, do hereby will the following: To Joe Andrews, a season ticket for next year's Fighting Illini football season; to Roger DeBrock, a season ticket for next year's Fighting Illini basketball season; to Darla Blackett, one gallon of liquid paper for her next year at Western because she seems to make so many typing mistakes; to Scott Carlson, the ability to slam dunk next year without using stick-um.

I, JIM JENSEN, being of demented mind and married body, will to "The Stone" a bottle of shampoo which should last him the rest of his high school years. Also to wife, Michelle, a supply of vitamins to keep up with baby's 10, 1, 4, and 7:00 feedings. And finally, to all the future cruisers of Princeton, I leave my reputation with the Princeton Police Department and my ability to be picked up at 3:30 A.M. on Mainstreet in Princeton.

I, TARA JOHNSON, being of sound mind and body, do hereby will to Kim Peterson, a radar for her car so she'll know, before it gets there, when a deer's going to cross the road; to Darla Blackert, an 8850 4-wheel drive John Deere tractor, which has the same purpose as the green gum she wouldn't let will her; and to Mr. D.W. Lane, an unlimited supply of ear plubs so that he doesn't have to listen to the obscene comments made in his Ag classes all year, and also, one beef detector, so he'll never again have to ask that famous question, "Where's the Beef?"

I, DEE ANN KING, being of condemned mind and deprived body, hereby will to my deprived, delinquent, hero, "SUPER FLIT" Lootens, a new halo to replace her broken one. To Darla Blackert, I leave a few tips on my style of treating men. To Andrea Wise, I leave all the area, including gravel roads, within a two mile radius of Hix's house and I promise not to trespass again! Last but not least, to my little cuz, Mike Jacobson, I leave him the burden of carrying on the family tradition, whatever it may be . . .

I, SANDY LOOTENS, being of FLITatious body and slightly demented mind, do hereby will Darcy two more National FFA Conventions like last year's; to "Foamy", I leave my "high chair" In Accounting and the T.G.I.F. slogan on the chalkboard; to Richard and Jeff, I leave my Alabama cassette and my "lucky hat." I leave to Joe Andrews my ability to disrupt Ag classes and NOT get into trouble. Finally, I will to Ms. Brokaw, a new "Flit" with an epicarp and an epidermis.

I, ARTHUR LOWDER, being of sound mind and devastating body, will to Dave Anderson a stool; and to Darla Blackert, my last can of beer because I quit.

I, MICHAEL B. MCVEY, being of unsound mind and body, do hereby will Mr. Poling his very own tardy bell because the ones in school are never on time with HIS clock. Also, to Mike Thompson, "A New Drug"; to Tommy Thompson, one complete oil change; and to the Class of 1988, my ability to put up with four years of high school and all its troubles.

I, BONNIE MICHLIG, being of sound mind and according to some people not enough height to play basketball body, do hereby will to Mr. Lane — PATIENCE — in which he will need due to the rising % of girls in his Ag classes — a lot was precedented by the Ag girls in the Class of 1984. To the M.H.S. student body — EXCITEMENT! And to the faculty, a weekly report (similar to that of the Enquirer), about M.H.S. students and their lives "for inquiring minds like theirs."

I, KIMBERLY LAINNE PETERSON, being of sound mind and body, do hereby leave to next year's cheerleaders three new sets of pom pons since most of the older ones end up on the floor in piles. I also will to the swing choir the ability to stay in a straight line while doing a CHORUS LINE. Last, but definitely not least, I will to the Ag III class one pound of sugar. It should last them all year.

I, MIKE ROWLAND, being dirty minded and clean bodied, will to Thomas LeRoy Wagstaff, my weight lifting set so he can work out and get strong enough to fight me. Also I will to Becky Martin a year's supply of typing erasers for the ones I used in Typing. Also, I will to Mr. Lane, a bull whip so he can keep the Ag III class quiet.

I, TINA SUGARS, being of destroyed mind and M & M body, do hereby will to Wendy Rasmussen one norma; dog for her car; to Wendy Rasmussen and Jeanna Hunt, one year's supply of bubble gum so they will not have to guy 4 packs a day for school. And to the basketball team, one super season to match the one we had this year.

I, ANDREA WISE, being of sound mind and body, do hereby will to Laurie Wessel, a year-long restroom pass to be used routinely at the same time every day in Mr. Ricci's study hall.

Senior Trip Senior Trip Senior Tr

Sunday, May 27 — We left the school at a very early 3 a.m. for O'Hare Airport to catch our 7:25 a.m. flight to Charlotte where we had a two hour layover. Arriving at Orlando at :30 p.m., we then checked into our hotel where we were greeted by African Epcot entertainers and we then spent the evening at Disney World.

Monday, May 29 — We spent the day at Disney World and Epcot Center. The evening was spent at a luau at the Polynesian Village which we enjoyed.

Tuesday, May 29 — We spent the entire day at Disney World and Epcot Center.

Wednesday, May 30 — We spent the morning at Wet and Wild and then we went to Sea World. That evening we went to Pioneer Hall at Disney World for the "Hoop-Dee-Doo" Revue and dinner.

Thursday, May 31 — We packed our bags and moved to St. Petersburg's Dolphin Beach Resort. In route we stopped in Tampa and spent the afternoon in Busch Gardens.

Friday, June 1 — This was a "free day" and most of us hit the beach and toasted our skins. That evening we went to Country Dinner Playhouse for a buffet and show entitled "Room Service".

Saturday, June 2 — The entire day was free. Some went shopping, others sunned themselves, and some did absolutely nothing. That evening we ate pizza in our rooms.

Sunday, June 3 — The whole day was spent traveling home. We anxiously arrived home at 9:15 p.m. with many different and exciting memories.
